HOMER ST. CAFE AND BAR

ABOUT US

Housed in two of Vancouver's most iconic buildings, Homer St. Cafe and Bar is a contemporary restaurant set in the historic Homer Building and new Beasley building in Vancouver's Yaletown district.

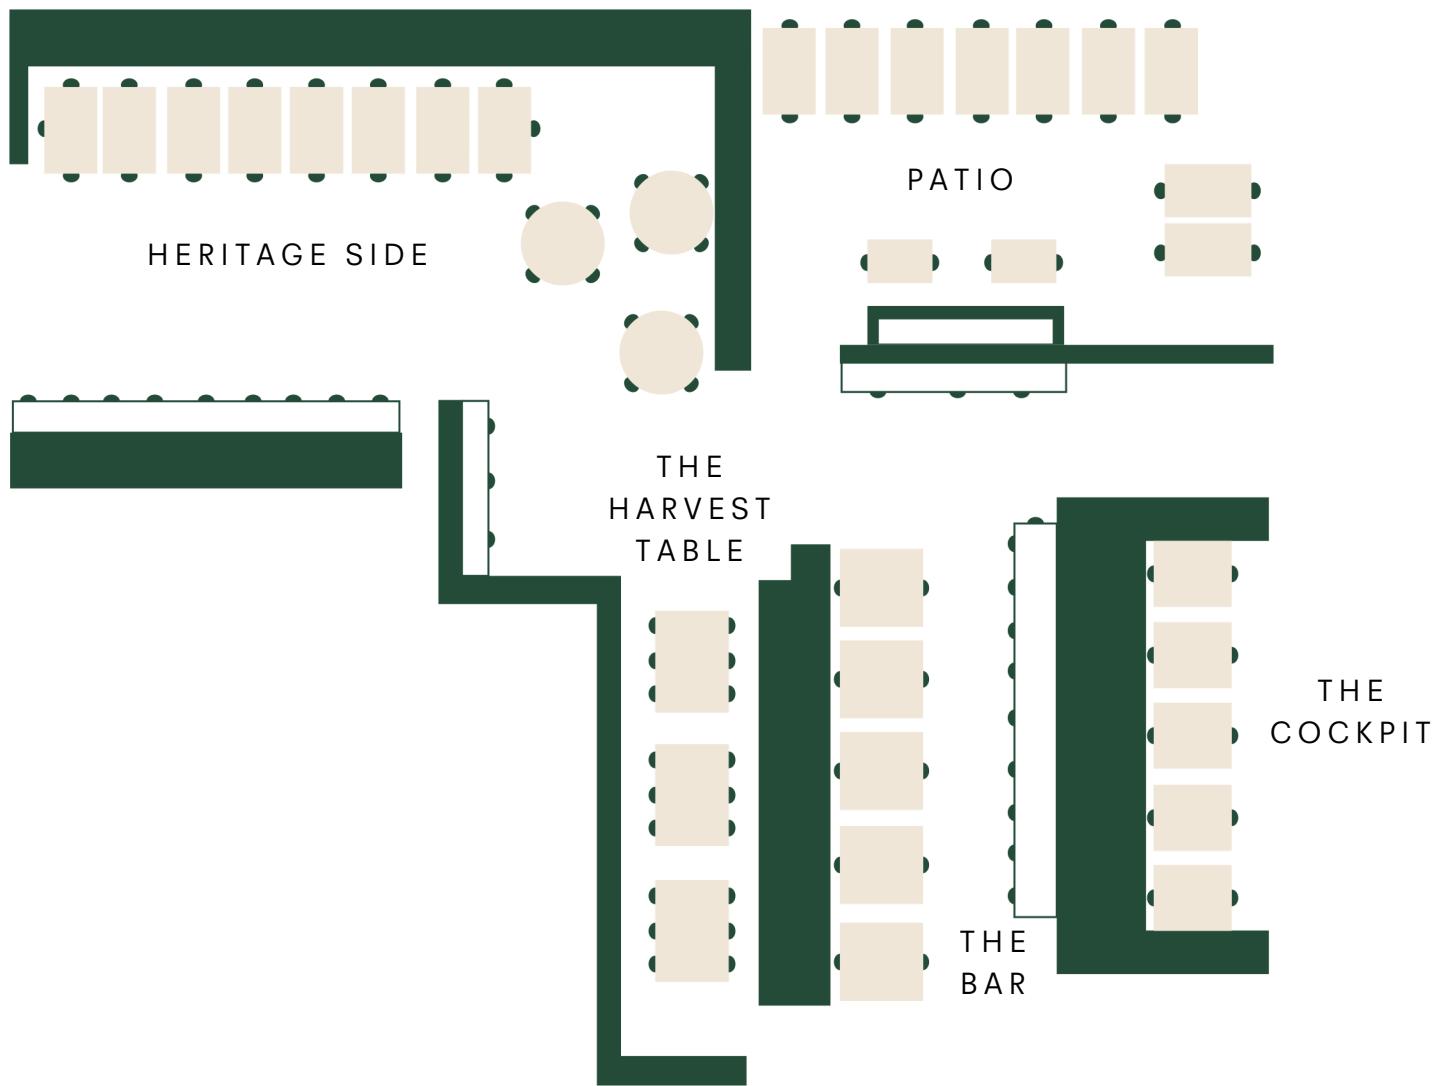

Classic comfort cooking takes centre stage thanks to a fire engine red rotisserie that roasts all manner of proteins. A decidedly adventurous wine and cocktail list rounds out the menu.

The restaurant features two spaces that consist of an open concept kitchen "Chef's Bar" where one can get up close and personal with the culinary team, a private dining room with reclaimed factory windows, and bespoke seating complemented by antique tiling.

Rich in local history, the building has seen several reincarnations. It was at times a dye works, a steam cleaner, and an ice delivery shop. In 1952, the Smithe Coffee Bar opened, later known as the Homer Café, a local dining landmark. The restoration of the buildings original windows, grand staircase, signature domed roofs and metal clad cornice and exterior was completed in 2010.

HERITAGE SIDE

Homer St.'s "Heritage Side" showcases the beauty of the original heritage space while incorporating a very contemporary sensibility.

Large windows, doors and light fixtures in harmony with honed marble surfaces, ornate mosaic tile work and an open-concept kitchen "Chef's Bar" fill out what is overall a very relaxed and comfortable yet curiously well-appointed space.

A partial buyout of the Heritage Side is available

18 seated

THE COCKPIT

This intimate semi-private dining room seats up to 12 guests for a sit-down dinner. Adorned in a palette of warm tones including chocolate brown, amber, matte black, soft gold and low sheen metals play off each other to create mood and drama – giving this room an impressive look and ideal setting for intimate gatherings. A carefully curated collection of framed roosters finish off the room and give it its distinctive name. The Cockpit is a stunning private event venue for sophisticated gatherings.

MENU

Homer St. Cafe and Bar is committed to a mantra of "Locally Minded; Responsibly Raised" using only fresh, humanely raised meats, seafoods and ingredients from local farmers and vendors whenever possible. The menu itself features roasted meats, seafood and vegetables as cooked by the Rotisol Grande Flame Olympia Rotisserie – the classic car of rotisseries and the only one of its kind in Canada being used in a restaurant setting – alongside a menu focused on elevated comfort food. Recipient of a Michelin Recommendation since the Michelin Guide's review of Vancouver and Golden Plates voted us Best Yaletown Restaurant in June 2023.

WINE

We offer a thoughtfully curated wine program featuring selections from top-quality producers around the world. The focus is on craftsmanship, with wines that showcase exceptional production methods and distinct character. Whether you're exploring well-known regions or discovering hidden gems, there's something to suit every taste. With advance notice, we can tailor the selection to fit your group's preferences.

BEER

Celebrating craft brewers from Vancouver, the beer program at Homer St. Cafe and Bar is devoted to highlighting interesting and unique products. With a strong allegiance to local beer makers, the draught beer program is dedicated to local brews featuring a five-tap tower and signature beer, Homer St. Cafe and Bar Wishbone Lager crafted by Main Street Brewing.

COCKTAILS

The cocktail menu philosophy is based on quality ingredients mixed with an equal balance of respect and tradition. Made with the freshest available selections, the cocktail selection respects the heritage of the space and its modern flair. We can build a custom welcome cocktail for an event.
